

- From cafeteria to concessions, MealtimeXpress is the creative solution for satellite foodservice.
- Perfect choice for satellite or remote feeding in healthcare or hospitality
  - Use for meal service in acute care facilities, doctors' dining lounges, cafeterias or as a portable kiosk
  - Ideal for satellite application in schools, sporting venues, convention centers, etc.
  - Our customization program allows you to broadcast your personalized message
  - Easily accessible interior service components and smooth covered food cavities provide easy cleaning

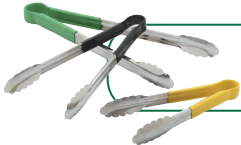

All upgrades must be ordered at the same time as the product.

Dinnerware
page 54

Measure Misers
page 191

Tongs
page 192

| Prod No                                                                               | Description                                        | L x D x H                | Pack |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|--------------------------|------|
| MealtimeXpress Units - 120 Volts - (8 Full Size or 16 Half Size Pans Per Compartment) |                                                    |                          |      |
| DXCMTXHR                                                                              | One Hot Compartment & One Refrigerated Compartment | 52.35" x 54.52" x 28.69" | 1 ea |
| DXCMTXHH                                                                              | Two Hot Compartments                               | 52.35" x 54.52" x 28.69" | 1 ea |