

NEW Bellwether™ 18/10

Flatware with antimicrobial material technology construction from Foodservice Industry leader Walco.

Introducing Bellwether™ 18/10 stainless flatware blend with antimicrobial material technology mixed into the stainless steel! The surface of this flatware becomes an inhospitable environment for microorganism survival. It continuously disrupts and prevents uncontrolled growth of microorganisms on the surface of the flatware between washings.

Bellwether™ 18/10 is designed with high arching handles to make it easy to lift from the table, perfect for the health care industry!
